

Easter is the Greatest Feast in the Church's Liturgical Year

Easter is the greatest feast in the Church's Liturgical Year because it celebrates

The Easter candle is lit at every celebration of the Eucharist during the fifty days of the Easter season from _____ until _____.

The five grains of incense on the Easter candle represent the _____

The _____ and _____ symbols are the first and last letters of the _____ alphabet. They remind people that the Risen Jesus is the Beginning and the End of all time and that all praise belongs to him forever.

The light reminds people of the Risen Christ who is the light of the world.

Instructions

- Read together
- Complete the sentences
- Complete the missing decorations on the Easter candle including the date of the year

